The issue has been resolved and there will be a refund of $4.00 issued.

B. Treasurer's Report – May

Treasurer Rebecca Elko reported that the treasurers and clerks reports all match.

C. Maintenance

Leroy Roos spoke to 3D Concrete about replacing the cement pad in front of the door at city hall. 3D Concrete will provide an estimate and this will be discussed further at the next Council meeting. A discussion about the drainage issues at city hall also took place. The drainage issues will need to be addressed before any work on the cement pad or city hall property can be completed.

A discussion also took place about the need to redo the alleys and walking path. Maintenance Leroy Roos received estimates from Mesabi Bituminous for the alleys, walking path and parking lot. After Many questions arose, it was decided that a meeting with bituminous was needed before moving forward. Leroy Roos will speak to his contact at Mesabi Bituminous and a meeting will be set up.

It was decided that at this time, the priority should be redoing the alleys and that the walking path will be discussed further in the future.

Clerk McKenzie Clinton mentioned that there may be grant opportunities available for the walking paths. The opportunities will be explored before any final decisions regarding the walking paths are made.
